Play Brings Modern Fairy Land

The organ grinder plays for Gwen in the delirium scene in "The Poor Little Rich Girl" which will be presented in the College auditorium Saturday, October 30, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and at 8:15 o'clock in the evening.

Children's Theatre of New York
Will Present Major Entertainment

Plot of Selection to Be Given Is a Child's Want for Fancy.

"The Poor Little Rich Girl," Eleanor Gate's celebrated fantasy which will be a major entertainment, October 30, in the College auditorium, by the Clare Tree Major Children's Theatre of New York, is one of the few modern stories which can compete with the fairy tales of old in captivating the youthful imagination. As a modern fantasy, set against a familiar, everyday background, "The Poor Little Rich Girl" offers a great deal of entertainment for young and old.

Reveals Child's Fancy
Revealing a child's enormous capacity for fancy, the play shows a little girl's imagination actually at work, actively engaged in the process of transforming the puzzling speech and bewildering behavior of the grown-ups around her into terms of her own understanding.

Thus, when she hears her father described as being "made of money," or her mother as having a "social bee in her bonnet," or that her nurse is a "two-faced thing," she immediately creates a land of fancy inhabited by creatures who have the physical forms of such adult phrases. There, too, she rationalizes in her own way such expressions as "heels over head," "best foot forward," "murdering the King's English," and all the other intriguing notions with which her elders have unconsciously excited her imagination.

Was Broadway Success
Ever since 1913, when the play had its Broadway premier, it has been famous not only for its insight into a child's perplexities, but also for its piquant humor, which is simultaneously rollicking fun for children and clever satire for adults.

The outstanding Broadway and motion picture success "The Poor Little Rich Girl" will be here in just one more week. It is being sponsored by the local organizations of the A. A. U. W. and the A. C. E.

Administrators Attend
Education Conferences

President J. W. Jones and Dean M. C. Cunningham attended the Missouri Education Conference meeting at Jefferson City, Monday, October 18.

Dr. Jones attended a conference of college presidents, and Dr. Cunningham was present at a meeting of deans of colleges on Sunday, October 17, at the state capital.

Mr. Harold Neece, business manager, was in Jefferson City on business with the state purchasing agent the first of the week. Mr. Neece attended the National Business Association meeting at Des Moines last week.

Orchid for Peggy

Peggy Ford, after completing her freshman year at the College, was very much interested in returning for her sophomore year.

Moreover, when she returned this fall she brought five other students with her. Two of them were entering college for the first time, and the other three were transfer students from other colleges.

Peggy, an active member of the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, is from Lenox, Iowa.

Jim Hainey, Mary Lou Laughlin, Kathryn Krause, and Beverly Johnson will arrange for meetings in town; Charlene Welch, Reva Jo Kerns, Herbert Awe and Hurst Hogan are in charge of publicity.

Jean Bush, with the help of Vernelle Cox, Rosemary Hansford, Lois Walker, and Joyce King, will handle the book exhibit during the week; Dortha Carter heads the hospitality committee, with Diana Yip, Nancy Dean and Donna Martin assisting her.

Roberta Mitchell, chairman for worship and spiritual resources, has as assistants, Lucille Cockayne, Gordon Bixler, and Bette McKown.

Freshmen Will Tour Horace Mann
During the last week in October, the Freshman Orientation classes will take a tour through the Horace Mann School. "It will give the freshmen a chance to get acquainted with the building and see that it is a definite part of the College," states Mrs. Gee, orientation director.

NOTICE

Cars on the campus streets must go more slowly. The speed limit is 15 miles per hour around curves; 20 miles per hour elsewhere. Vet Village, where many little children live, is included in the regulation.

Speeders will be brought before the Student Senate on their first offense. The second will make the offenders subject to appearance before the College administrators.

Student co-operation is requested in reporting law breakers.

Judge Kelley Wins
Teachers' Approval

Speaker Places Emphasis
Upon Good Qualities
Found in People.

It is the opinion of Judge Camille Kelley that if every person could be honest and courteous in his mental mind the world would be blessed with peace and good will.

Mrs. Kelley, who is juvenile court judge in Memphis, Tennessee, discussed the topic "Our Children At This Crucial Hour" before an audience of teachers October 7.

"If we can teach instructors that a child is a thinking unit, we have taken the initial steps," declared Mrs. Kelley.

She illustrated this manner of salesmanship by telling of a case referred to her court—that of a young girl, her eyes filled with defiance and her character disorderly. She explained that to reach the girl it was necessary to be sincere and honest. By a few simple words of praise for the girl's good qualities, the judge touched the wayward one's heart and freed her soul.

Reforms Must Come From Within
"Righteousness is one of the most beautiful things on earth," she pointed out to the child. And concerning reform schools, she continued, "All reforms must come from within. It is wise to be a virtuous woman for the sake of a society. No man ever stood before the firing squad but what he thought of some woman."

Mrs. Kelley challenged that some forms of education, especially those stimulating interest in sports, offset much juvenile delinquency. She also advised the teachers to discourage smoking among youngsters.

World Is Built on Character
"Our world is built on character value," she emphasized. "This character may be achieved through education which provides one with the stamina to live—not die—in the social world."

The congenial judge, who liberally sprinkled her address with humor, pleaded for educators to demand reverence, respect, and obedience. She stressed the point that since everyone is susceptible to youth, it would be no hard task to inspire youngsters with the idea that it is profitable to be good. She believed that there is no freedom without control, and that an atmosphere of control in freedom is as easy to achieve as one of defiance.

"If you have deep seated humility of spirit, students will listen with you," the speaker, who is listed in Who's Who in America and in International Who's Who, assured her attentive audience. "Pursue your every problem straight to results," she added.

This author of "Delinquent Angels," published in 1948, maintained that no nation can overcome America so long as right reigns in the hearts of people.

"America is the home of the world, and you teachers are its fathers," concluded the speaker, whose dynamic personality met with the whole hearted approval of the audience.

Alumni Comment About Plans for November 6

Upon being asked for information concerning plans for the weekend of November 6, some alumni and former students have the following to say:

"Of course I plan to attend Homecoming—I wouldn't miss it!" is the enthusiastic reply of Miss Virginia Akers.

Miss Akers, Class of 1948, is a music instructor in elementary grades at Sugar Creek. She attended the teachers convention held at the College on October 6 and 7.

Miss Dorothy Harvey replies, "My sincerest intention at the present time is to be in Maryville, November 5 and 6. I don't want to miss the variety show because I surely enjoyed it last year. In my opinion it was the best of all the Homecoming events."

Miss Harvey is teaching commerce this year in her home town, Blytheedale.

Miss Arlene Davis, who is teaching Happy Hollow rural school near Hopkins, says, "I will come back. I can't miss seeing the parade with all of the floats! And of course I shall like the variety show!"

Sue Wormley replies, "I'm definitely coming back. I am coming not only for the entertainment but also to see old friends. I especially enjoyed the variety show and parade last year, and I don't want to miss anything this year."

Walt Lovejoy, a former student of the College, who is now attending Kirksville, says, "I'm looking forward to seeing all my old friends in Maryville." Walt will be in Maryville with the Kirksville band during Homecoming.

Miss Joy Ann Gibson will attend Homecoming this year and says, "I plan to see everything, the parade, the football game, the dance, the variety show, and I want to catch up on the news at Residence Hall."

Miss Eva Marietta Brown, an alumna, is planning to attend Homecoming this year. She said the most important part of Homecoming will be seeing old friends again. Miss Brown is teaching English at Lafayette High in St. Joseph.

Mrs. Betty Johnson, the former Miss Mary Jo Otto, says, "I am looking forward to the game and am expecting to see the best Homecoming the College has had to date."

Mrs. T. H. Eckert, instructor in English and journalism at the Maryville high school, enthusiastically awaits the Homecoming date. She says, "Although I live in Maryville and have frequent contacts with the College, it's always a thrill to get to enjoy the really big project of my alma mater. I feel this Homecoming will be even greater than the one in '47. None of the old grads should miss such an opportunity to rejuvenate their friendships."

Miss Elmyr Jean Duncan, an alumna who teaches at the Enterprise school in Rushville, says, "I will be in Maryville for Homecoming! It will be great to be back with the old college gang again, if only for a weekend!"

"I wouldn't miss the 1948 Homecoming for anything," says Miss Marjorie Burton. "It will be a wonderful opportunity to see my old friends and to have a good time." Miss Burton teaches the first, second, and third grades in Blytheedale.

Patrol Will Assist

The Highway Patrol will cooperate with and assist the College authorities in every way possible to curb the speeding and careless driving on the campus.

We all know that the athletic contests our schools sponsor and encourage stress sportsmanship and team work and the principles of fair play. These qualities are just as essential in the job of driving an automobile, maybe more so, because on the athletic field a game is at stake, whereas on our streets and highways, lives are at stake.

Let's all cooperate and operate our machines sensibly. Remember, safety is free until it's neglected.

Jeanne Taylor Makes
Trip Abroad to Teach

Miss Jeanne K. Taylor, former student of the College, sailed Sunday, October 10, for Japan, where she will teach in a missionary school for three years.

Miss Taylor's luggage was on board ship at San Francisco, also food, since it is difficult for American civilians to obtain food in Japan. Because of a sailors' strike, no ships were leaving from San Francisco. Miss Taylor, almost at the last moment, transferred to New Orleans, where she left for Japan, with six others, without food and supplies and without luggage. A cabin, given to the group as an honor from the captain, will serve as their temporary home while they make their ocean journey to Japan.

Kyoai Jo Gakko, Maebasaki, Japan, will be Miss Taylor's address.

Learn Skill of Typing
Easy, Simple, Fast Way

Forget typing class. Learn to type in a single day. Spend your time in the bookstore. No more homework in typing.

Mrs. Harold Neece recently acquired a book entitled "Learn to Type in 24 Hours." She has introduced this book to her beginning typing classes, hoping that even the slow ones can type well enough to make an S.

Observe Safety Regulations!

Your help is needed to curtail the speeding on the college campus.

I know that most car drivers will cooperate with the request to drive carefully on the campus. But there are a few who do not seem to care how fast they go. We must all unite to stop this type of reckless driving. You are asked to report to me the car number, the name of the driver of any car going too fast, too recklessly, or with too much disregard for the safety of others. You must be willing to testify that the driver was violating the safety regulations. With this information at hand I shall take the necessary steps to bring the reckless driver to the attention of those charged by law to handle such cases.

Reckless driving and fast driving on this campus must be brought under control. It can be done if you will help.

Parades, Open Houses,
Rallies and Dance.

Homecoming Variety Show, which was the major Homecoming entertainment last year is again under way. Tryouts for Master of Ceremonies will be held soon.

Students who have been added to the Variety Show committee are Zea Grissinger and Rex Moyer. Jane Bovard heads the committee and has as her assistants, Lavonne Wescott and Bill Elam. Robert F. Gee of the College speech department is faculty adviser for the entire performance, which will take place in the College auditorium Friday evening, November 5.

Campus Groups Will Entertain

Organizations which have reported as planning to participate in the show are as follows: Alpha Phi Omega, Phi Sigma Epsilon, Sigma Sigma Sigma, Dramatics Club, Alpha Psi Omega, Delta Sigma Epsilon, Independent Club, Intermediate Club, Association of Childhood Education, Dance Club, Sigma Tau Gamma and Alpha Sigma Alpha. A time limit has been set, from 10 to 15 minutes for each stunt in the show.

Homer Long, president of the Student Council and chairman of the Queen's committee, reports that the queen will be crowned immediately following the Variety Show. After the coronation, an informal dance will be held in Room 114. Brad Moore and his band will provide the music.

Grand Trophy Will Be Given
Dr. John L. Harr of the social science department announces that a grand trophy will be given to the organization participating most in the various Homecoming activities. Decisions for five places will be determined by a point system. These decisions will be based on parade participation, Variety Show stunts, house decorations, floats, and those organizations having the most alumni present at their breakfasts, dinners and teas. Organizations spending more than $20 for their floats or houses spending more than $10 for decorations will not be eligible for this award.

The nature of this trophy is that of a supremacy cup. After the organization has won the cup three consecutive years, it may keep it permanently. First, second and third place plaques will also be given for Variety Show entries and house decorations. Each organization is asked to sponsor a house near the College to decorate. These homes will be judged both for lighting in the evening and other decorations.

Elementary Schools
Emphasize Art Work

College is Presented Ten
Pictures to Be Used
During the Year.

Art education is being emphasized again this year in the elementary schools of Missouri. The Missouri State Teachers Association has presented the College with a set of the ten Artex Prints. These prints, with an interpretative and biographical text relating to the ten art masterpieces, are approved for study in the elementary schools of Missouri for the school year of 1948-49.

For many years picture study has been a regular part of the curriculum in the elementary schools of Missouri. Ten pictures are selected for study each year. By selecting the more accessible material which is on the child's level, it is possible to organize the program so that it may be more effectively taught.

The program attempts to acquaint the students with the art of the past and of the present, with the realization that art is continuous and of the present as well as of the past. Beginning with the present school year, two of the ten pictures will be of Missouri scenes by contemporary artists. The two Missouri scenes in print this year are the following: A Fine Day in Missouri by Adolph Dehn and The Golden Eagle by Fletcher Martin.

The remaining eight pictures of the ten are as follows: Louisiana Rice Fields by Thomas Hart Benton, The Cook by Vermeer, Flight into Egypt by Giotto, Man and Machinery by Diego Rivera, The Minute Man by Daniel C. French,

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to inculcate a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us.

LET US APPRECIATE

Considerable recognition and praise is in order for Mr. Paxton Price, chief librarian at the College. It was through his efforts of the past year that the new art collection in the library was realized.

In order to provide as large a collection as possible with the available funds, Mr. Price, after reading a book on how to frame, cover, and finish paintings, started to work on a project which included the building of frames, the building of backs for the paintings, and the painting of the frames. The funds saved by building the frames here at the College were used in purchasing more paintings.

Many students have visualized the pictures as original paintings, but they are actually high fidelity colored reproductions of the original paintings. Some of the reproductions currently on display in the library are valued at more than seventy-five dollars.

According to Mr. Price, paintings may be added to the collection from time to time in the years to come. The collection, already distinguished by an outstanding addition to the College campus, could become the largest of its type in northwest Missouri.

In addition to the formation of a picturesque collection, the paintings will be used in various classes as items of study and criticism.

President J. W. Jones says that in a few months the pictures may be available to the high schools of this district for use in their classrooms. It is only through a project such as this, that high school students interested in art can study as a class unit such fine reproductions of the original masterpieces.

IT HAS HAPPENED BEFORE

"It is a gloomy moment in history. Not in the life-time of any man who reads his paper has there been so much grave and deep apprehension; never has the future seemed so dark and incalculable.

"In France the political cauldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty. England and the English empire are being sorely tried and exhausted in a social and economic struggle, with turmoil at home and uprising of her teeming millions in her farflung Indian empire. The United States is beset with racial, industrial, and commercial chaos—drifting, we know not where. Russia hangs like a storm cloud on the horizon of Europe—dark and silent.

"It is a solemn moment."

Although this article is pertinent to the news of today it was published in the Harper's Magazine on October 10, 1847, more than one hundred years ago. It was recently reprinted in the Farm Loan News magazine.

KELLEYGRAMS

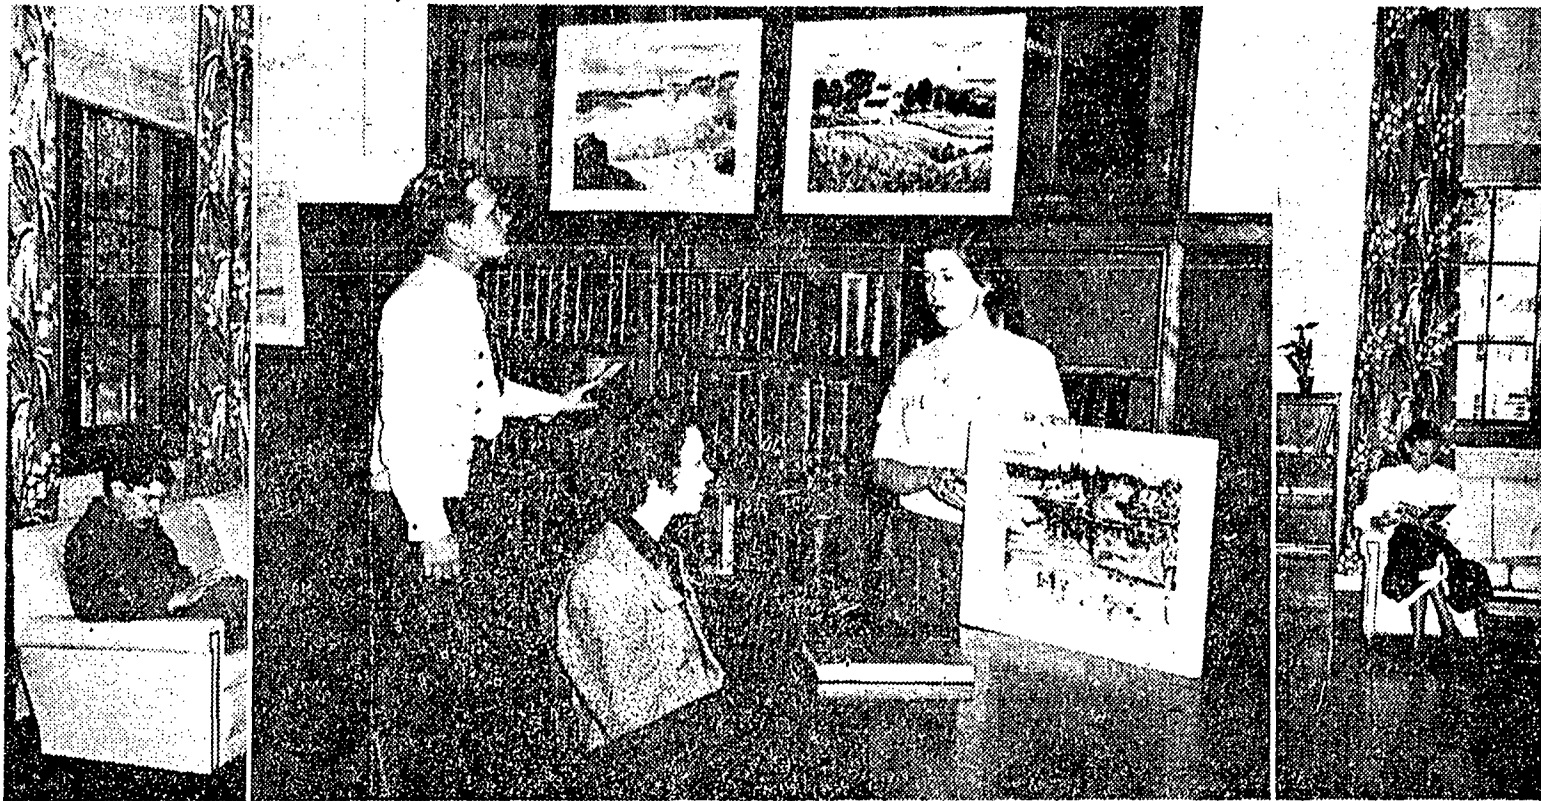

If everything in human experience were put in scientific order except the handling of behavior, we would still be in chaos.

We must teach our children, as well as ourselves, how to think and act sanely in a world set up for "rapid fire" progress or confusion.

A lost sense of values makes for a confused traveler on the behavior road just as a lost sense of direction makes for a confused traveler on the high sea or in the jungle.

Citizenship in America is a wonderful possession. Every child should be made not only to appreciate it intellectually, but to feel the thrill of its true meaning. It is a joyous thing to have the right to laugh, to play, to sing, to dance and to live in a house with your own family; to ride in your own car down a ribbon of cement, where homes, schools and churches make up towns and cities. Those things, every blessed, sacred one of them, are ours by the grace of God and the blood of our forefathers.

Miss M. Ernst Stresses Educational Role Today

Miss Marie Ernst, former president of the National Classroom Teachers Association, stressed the important role educational organizations play in today's life, when she spoke before the Northwest Missouri instructors, October 7. Miss Ernst believes it is almost impossible for one to serve boys and girls adequately unless he knows current trends in local and state educational organizations.

"If we can't answer their questions, we can't produce teachers," she pointed out. She spoke of a need for legislative and public relations committees as well as for groups to deal with welfare and professional problems.

"There is much work to be done," she lamented, "and we must work together to strengthen the moral fibers of our young people as well as to develop their mental capacities, their spiritual understanding, and their intellectual leadership."

She begged for a blueprint program for Missouri; however, she pointed out that if true unity were reached within the teaching ranks, the program would quite naturally formulate.

"A united profession moves forward," she continued, "Let us join hands that we may build the finest human institution in the world, thereby enabling us to worthily perform that task entrusted to us."

Korean Student Arrives

Lee Shai Sin, after leaving Seoul, Korea, Sunday, September 11, by ship, arrived in San Francisco, California, September 25. Lee arrived in Maryville by train after having spent three days in San Francisco. He is now a music major on this campus. Lee studied voice in Tokyo, Japan, in 1945. He was also a high school instructor in Seoul. Lee is a fluent speaker in the Korean, English, and Japanese languages. He says his impressions of the United States are very pleasing and he expresses hope that he may be a student here four years.

Browsing Room Provides Relaxation for Students

The new browsing room in the library has proved to be a popular place with the students. For those who have not observed, it is located on the first floor of the library in the north wing of the building. The room is well equipped with new furniture, current books, newspapers and other material. Mrs. Dan Emerson, a full-time employee in the browsing room, is there to be of service to the students.

The following students made these statements about the browsing room: Kenneth Frym said, "The College should be proud of such a fine addition." Elizabeth DePriest had this to say, "Very nice and a fine addition to the College facilities. It is comfortable and has a vast amount of material." Lewis Farmer said, "Makes a nice reading room and is the most comfortable place in the library."

Display Paintings Are Distributed on Campus

Numerous paintings have been purchased by the College and are now on display on the second floor of the library. The paintings have caught the interest of many students as well as faculty members. These works of art, after their display, will be distributed over the campus. Paintings will be placed in the lobby of Residence Hall, in private rooms of the Hall, in the lobbies of the men's quads and in various other places on the campus.

Among these paintings are such eminent works as the following: Spring Landscape by Grant Wood, The Gulf Stream by Winslow Homer, Tulagi Secured by Lt. Dwight Shepherd, U. E. N. R., Grand Canyon by Paul Wenck and Coast of Maine by Frederick Waugh. When consulted concerning the paintings Dr. Blanche H. Dow said, "They provide a free and easy transportation to a world of adventure." Beverly Busby, a student, said, "The paintings are very interesting and make for more pleasant surroundings." Ralph Cushman, a student, said, "Would be nice to have a definite place for one or two paintings in the library, change the paintings weekly and give an explanation as to how they were painted."

Dr. J. W. Hake Announces Arrival of New Telescope

Dr. J. W. Hake, head of the physical science department, has announced the arrival of an army surplus telescope. The telescope is on a tripod and can be tilted to any desired angle. It has three powers of magnification: 15, 23, and 30. Craters on the moon and shadows cast by the rims of the craters are plainly visible through the telescope.

Dr. Hake and Mr. M. L. Long, instructor in physical science, have been able, thus far, to locate four out of the eleven moons of Jupiter. Dr. Hake has been inquiring about the cost of reflector mirrors, in the hope that it might be possible, should the lens be obtained, to build a reflector telescope of such magnitude that the rings of Saturn and other smaller celestial bodies will be more easily seen.

The Veterans Administration office indicates 2,703 veterans entered on-the-farm training in Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas and Oklahoma during August.

The Stroller

Well here I am again! After another busy two weeks of English themes, Homecoming committees, anatomy tests (wow), parties, dances and that thrilling football victory, the Stroller is almost worn to a stub, but not too tired to say that I think the football fellows and Coach Milner deserve a big bouquet of roses for the Springfield-Maryville game. The cheerleaders, Marjorie McGee, Vee Oyerly, Clyde Bowen, Mary Lou Rockwell, Marianne Swanson, Mary Jo Marple, and Monty Pitner also did a fine job.

Ye old Stroller has been around many years, long enough to have seen many new faces and changes. This fall, however, there is something new in the cooperative spirit of the Alpha Sigs—Sig Taps. The western party, sponsored jointly at the Country Club, was a big success. I know, I went! There was plenty of cider for everyone. The variety show also promises something utterly—oops, sorry can't tell you any more now!

After viewing the beauty contest to select an American Royal Queen, the Stroller thinks this year's crop of beauties tops all previous records. Congrats from all of us to the queens, Polly Cramer, Roberta Walker, and Pat McIntyre!!

As I was reading the new Co-Edition, published by the Independents, I just happened to think of all the kids who had taken that step that leads to the church aisles, that of "hanging your frat pin," and I thought of:

Jack Slack (Alaska)—Polly (Queen) Cramer.

Bud Gooden—Shirley Voracek.

Bill Christensen—Margaret Berry.

David Arthur—Sis Wharton.

Then there are those with diamonds, third finger, left hand . . .

Marilyn Anderson—Dick Owens.

Julia Shemmaker—Floyd Klang.

Shirley Burger—Bruce Mitchell.

Bernetta Cushman—Pete Younger.

Artie White—Joe Walker.

Pat Hagee—Bob Osborne.

Pat Murphy—Ralph Fishell.

Stroller would like to congratulate them!

I happened to see an almost fatal accident during the Green and White Pepper initiation. Seems as though Marvin Weed wanted to take a pepper (vegetable) from a Pepper and the Pepper pulled the pole and the pepper away and almost hit Miss Carruth in the face. Sorry Teacher. (Oh, well, what's another U?)

So long for now. I have to get to work on a Homecoming committee and help win the cup to be given to the organization which participates the most and best this year!

Square Dance Makes Evening Go Around

Alpha Sigs and Sig Taus Hold Western Party Honoring Pledges.

"Go west, young man, go west!" The Alpha Sig and Sig Tau activists and pledges did go west as far as the Maryville Country Club Saturday night, October 9, to their joint ranch party given in honor of the pledges of both Greek organizations.

A sign on the porch of the club informed all Jean and plaid shirt-clad party-goers that they were about to enter the Alpha Sig-Sig Tau ranch house. Decorations were western saddles on sawhorses on either side of the door, kerosene lanterns hanging down the center of the ceiling, and Indian blankets hung over each window. Large logs draped with Indian blankets were placed around the dance floor; western weapons such as rifles, bows and arrows were hung on the walls.

Entertainment for the evening included an ice breaker dance called the "Broom Dance." Later the cowgirls and cowboys formed squares for old fashioned square dancing, accompanied by Joanne Masters, ASA pledge, who played the accordion, and Vernelle Cox, who played the piano. Don Hoffman and Dave Arthur called the squares which were "Texas Star" and "Birdie In The Cage." A short skit was given by Dick Kabel on how not to tune liquid-filled drinking glasses on which to play tunes. A pledge quintet—Norrie Norris, Joanne Wright, Don Hansen, Clyde Thompson, and Kenny Cleveland—entertained the group with a new version of "You Are My Sunshine."

Refreshments of elder, doughnuts, potato chips, and apples were served to the exhausted square-dancers.

The central planning committee for the party was Dale Standage, Bud Gooden, Joe Roach, Bob Mann, Barbara Mann, Pat McIntyre, Polly Cramer, and Sergio Fries. Faculty guests present were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harr and Mr. L. C. White.

The Alpha Sigs and Sig Taus are planning to have more joint social affairs.

Some of it was about 300 years old. It was hard to tell what the guests enjoyed most—the food, the porcelain, or the use of chopsticks.

O. Steinsholt, Oslo, Attends University

Norway Graduate Inquires About Homecoming, New Changes, Friends.

Odd Steinsholt of Oslo, Norway, an alumnus, tells of the conditions in Norway and reminisces about college days in a letter received by Fred Davis, student on this campus. Parts of the letter are as follows—

"Much water has run into the ocean since I saw you last, and from the information I get, I understand that quite a few changes have taken place in Maryville. A year is not a long time, especially judging from all the work that has not been done; still it makes us one year older. I shall not try to recall all the experiences I have encountered the last year. I have had plenty of work to do at the university, and I have spent the rest of the year on vacations. To start with the work. Last fall I started in with a heavy load and passed two exams at the university before Christmas. The following semester I mainly studied just attending lectures. This year is going to be the last year of study for the time being. I shall then take a job while gathering material for my degree. As a matter of fact, Fred, I am a little tired of the books and a couple of years at work will do me good.

Well, Fred, I have been talking too much of myself. How are the boys in the fraternity? I hope you are just as friendly as you always were and find time for a friendly talk. Do you have a large number of pledges this year? In these days I expect you are busy preparing the Homecoming. I understand it is going to become a big event now.

The farmers have quite a job here this fall to get the crops in. Here we have to cut the wheat and let it dry for a week or more before they take it into the barn. When there is plenty of rain it is easy to understand that it causes some troubles. Talking about food I should say that the situation has improved some. Still meat is scarce. Up to now people have had two meals of meat a month. It is not very much compared with that of other people in Europe; however, I see no reason why we should complain. The big question is if the great powers can stop making every one uncertain as to the future. I don't see how we can prevent another war, and maybe that is why the rebuilding of the world takes such a long time.

Well, Fred, I shall not keep on painting gloomy pictures. It helps very little.

Fred, if you have time I would be glad to hear from you. Remember me to the rest of the boys, and all others that still remember me.

Your old friend and brother, Odd.

Bearcats Host to Rockhurst Hawks for Parents Ceremony Friday

Maryville Seeks Third Victory

Grudge Battle Expected As Result of Last Year's 14-0 Count.

Parents Will Be Guests

Kansas City Elevens' Plague of Injuries Should Help Decide Outcome.

Rivalry will play an important part when the Maryville Bearcats tangle with Rockhurst Friday on the Bearcat gridiron. The Bearcats will be out to avenge last year's setback at the hands of the powerful Kansas City eleven. Rockhurst scored twice and converted both times to stop Maryville 14-0. Maryville out-dug and out-gained Rockhurst but a barrage of passes in the fourth quarter, when Rockhurst drove with out-cessation, proved to be the culminating event.

New Men Eager for Chance
Maryville will field a hardened, fast moving club, studded with newcomers anxious for a chance to show their grid talent. The Bearcats' injuries have been limited in the last two games and they will be at full strength against the Hawks.

Rockhurst, on the other hand, has been plagued by a group of bad breaks, several errors and a couple of fighting teams—Springfield and Warrensburg.

Coach Lew Lane of the Hawks is relying on the powerful plunges of fullback Joe Crane and the sweeping end runs of Bob Aylward to bring victory to the Hawks.

Scores Give Bearcats Edge
If comparative scores are meaningful, the Bearcats have an edge. Maryville upset a powerful Springfield team 14-13 while Rockhurst tasted defeat from the same club 18-0.

Friday evening, October 22, has been set as a special night for parents. They will be given privileges and honors before, during, and after the Bearcats play Rockhurst in a football duel on Maryville's home ground. The Athletic Association is also sponsoring a Ladies' Day. Ladies will be admitted free if accompanied by one paid admission.

Parents of the varsity football players will be given selected seats along the sidelines of the football field and a number, corresponding to that of their sons, will be pinned on their backs for identification.

Half time will feature a number of added attractions. The Barkatze and the Green and White Peppers will give several stunts and the Maryville band will display their march formations. Dean M. C. Cunningham will also take part in the program when he will welcome the parents.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served to the students and their parents following the game.

The athletic department urges every student to bring his parents to the football game this Friday and join the crowd in having fun.

Sport Scene

Notre Dame's reign of destruction, which is currently riding the crest of one of the longest winning streaks in the history of football, has caught the public's eye.

Joe Louis has expressed a desire for another fight before resigning as heavy-weight champion of the world.

Wrigley Field was the scene of action in which the Chicago Bears defeated the Green Bay Packers with a score of 45-7. The Bears completely outclassed the Packers in every respect. One of the highlights of the game was a 43 yard pass hurled by John Lujack to one of his team mates. The Bears unleashed a turbulent attack upon the proud Packers in the fourth quarter which proved to be the most interesting part of the game.

One of the most unusual pep talks was made in Cambridge some twenty odd years ago when Charlie Moran's "Praying Colonels" moved east to take on the heavily favored Harvard team. It was customary for Charlie to lead his men in prayer before each game. On this particular occasion, Charlie rushed into the dressing room and shouted, "Hurry up, fellows. Down on your knees quick. I'm going to lead you in prayer; a reporter's comment!"

Incidentally the "Colonels" turned in one of the biggest upsets in the history of football that afternoon.

Cleveland's rampaging Indians, behind the superb playing of manager Lou Boudreau, won their first world championship since 1920 at the expense of the Boston Braves.

Bob Feller, Indian hurling ace, pitched perhaps the best game of the series when he fired a two hitter at the Braves on opening day, but lost 1-0.

Indian hopes were undimmed, however, and they struck with the voltage of lightning to record victories in the next three games.

Boston, seemingly beaten because of costly fumbles, bad breaks, weak hitting and a number of other calamities, refused to go out and with a heart that would not stop beating, pushed the game to Boston by thrashing a host of Indian pitchers 1-5 at Cleveland.

At Boston, the final game found Bob Lemon pitching the tribe to the championship, and chalking up his second series victory over the Braves in as many outings. Other winning pitchers for Cleveland were Steve Gromek and Gene Rearden. Sain and Spahn won for the Braves.

Late Miner Rally Subdues Bearcats

The Maryville Bearcats today had a one won-one lost standing in the MAAA as the result of their 24 to 6 defeat handed them Saturday in a pouring rain by the Miners on the Rolla field.

The Bearcat defense, which had held the strong Rolla team for three quarters, collapsed in the last quarter when the home team scored two touchdowns.

Maryville went into the second half leading 6 to 0. The Maryville score came as the result of a 56 yard dash by Marvin Weed after the interception of a Miner pass. Marion Freeman missed his first conversion of the year.

The game was a duel between fullbacks, Weed of Maryville and Jim McGrath of Rolla, both hard line plungers.

Fumble on One Foot Line
Rolla got its first score in the third period when McGrath plunged over from his own two yard line after a 60 yard drive.

In the third quarter, Maryville took a Rolla punt on the Rolla 45 line and drove to the one foot line where the Bearcats lost the ball on a fumble.

In the fourth period, Quarterback Kemper of the Miners scored on wide end sweeps.

Pete Younger of Maryville played a good game at defensive end until forced out in the second quarter with a knee injury.

Random Shots . . .

This year's Bearcat squad hasn't so many vets, but the National Guard unit on the campus is doing all right.

Don 'Hollywood' Hartness was a welcome member to report for football this fall. Rumor has it that Don had decided to remain on the west coast and work. Don is one of the mainstays in the Big Green line and should help the season record of wins by his play in the line.

Gossip has it that Maryville's first foe in basketball will be University of Nebraska. With an improved crew of lettermen returning we should give the corn huskers a real game.

Orchids to Norman James and Floyd Klang for their splendid showing against the Springfield Bears. Both played the full 60 minutes of the game.

Bill Gamble, veteran Bearcat center, was shaken up considerably when he was knocked out during a kick-off play in the Springfield game. Bill's absence was felt in the Maryville forward wall.

Pete 'Strawberry Roan' Younger has been switched to a defensive end.

His weight and height should stop a lot of enemy end runs.

Bruce Peters, football letterman now coaching at Anita, Iowa, has come up with a winning ball club. His season record thus far is—two wins and one tie.

Glenn Sherry, who missed the Bearcats' first two games, saw his first varsity action Friday night. Glenn is a very good prospect and should see a lot of action as the season progresses.

New lights for the football field and now a new floor for the field house. The old floor was terrible. The work has already begun and should be finished sometime in November.

Something new has been added—the Curnutt Motor Company has donated a new radio for the recently acquired bus used by the Bearcat squad. The Rolla and Cape trips should be more pleasant.

Tri Sig Pledges Elect Officers
Pledge officers of Sigma Sigma Sigma were elected Wednesday evening, October 13. Diane Dressler is president; Roberta Walker, vice president; Sarabel Davis, secretary; and Pat Asman, treasurer.

Aroused Bearcats Stun Springfield 14-13 in M. I. A. A. Curtain Raiser

Freeman's Conversions Aid Maryville in Conquest of Powerful Bears.

The Maryville Bearcats, playing their first conference game of the season and revenge a 7-7 tie of last year, out-pointed Southwest Missouri Teachers 14-13 in a thrilling contest that took place on the Bearcat field October 8.

A blocked Springfield punt by Marvin Weed late in the fourth quarter provided the stage of Maryville's winning touchdown and conversion when the 'Cats recovered on the Bears' 33 yard line. Weed hit the line for eight and on the second down, with four minutes of playing time remaining and the 'Cats behind 13-7, Burt Richey faded deep to his right off a single wing formation and fired a pass into the waiting arms of Norman James in the end zone. This tied the score and Marion Freeman split the uprights with his second perfect conversion to give the Bearcats the controlling margin of one point which was sufficient to win the game.

Bear Line Surprisingly Strong

Floyd Klang displayed some brilliant defense play and although he was supplemented by several good linemen like "Whitey" Meyers, Don Hartness, and Pete Younger, the Bearcat line still seemed to dissolve before the front wall of the Springfield squad. End sweeps were especially effective for large gains and Springfield plunges often stretched into the secondary. The visitors' passes were accurate, but the Bearcat pass defense played "heads up" ball, and only four of the twelve hurled were completed.

Maryville completed only three of their twelve passing attempts but collected more yardage than did the Bears. Bearcat ground offensive was poor and netted only five first downs with 105 yards gained. The Bears renewed a "first-and-ten" fifteen times by collecting a total of 286 yards gained by rushing.

Penalties favored the Bearcats, though, and proved to be the potential factor in reversing several sweeping Springfield marches. The Bears retreated seventy-five yards while Maryville was penalized only ten yards.

The Bears, wearing black and red, received the opening kickoff and in a series of plays surged down the field for twenty-five yards until Gamble intercepted a short pass on the mid-stripe to give possession to the Bearcats. Weed plunged off the T formation for five yards and Zuchowski swept end for eight and a first down. Once more Weed took the ball and drove to the Springfield twenty-six yard line. Butherus then handed off to James, who slipped off tackle and dashed elusively through the backfield and over the goal line to chalk up six points. Freeman converted for the seventh.

But the Bears came back when James fumbled and they recovered on the 'Cats forty yard line. An end sweep carried the ball to the twenty-four. A line buck was stopped, but worked on the second down as Haley scurried along the sidelines to the six where Marvin Weed pulled him down. The 'Cats held for two plays and then Haley plunged through right tackle for the touchdown. Hartzog's place kick was wide and Maryville led 7-6.

Late in the second quarter the Bears pressed again, having recovered a Bearcat fumble on the 'Cats fifteen yard line. A Bear hit the line but failed to gain. A hurried huddle formed and broke rapidly into kick formation, but the Bearcat line swished past the Springfield defense and blocked the field goal.

The 'Cats received the third quarter kick but were forced to punt after three unsuccessful downs. Springfield began on their twenty-eight yard line and in four plays journeyed to the Bearcat twenty-two. Haley skirted left end along the sidelines until Klang dropped him on the eight. Here the Bearcat line held for three plays, but Haley sped once again around left end for a touchdown. Hartzog converted and the score stood 13-7.

Richey's Passes Split Defense

Maryville took to the air during the last quarter and threw ten of twelve attempted passes with Richey and Al Wormsley doing the tossing. The Bears played a cagey game, however, and the 'Cats were secluded in their own territory. With five minutes remaining to be played, Wormsley punted to the Springfield thirty yard line. The Bears tried two line plunges which netted them a yard and an end sweep was fouled up by Dietz for a four yard loss. Kerin, of the Bears, stepped back to punt on the fourth down, but Weed, playing a line backer's position, smashed through the line and jumped high to block the kick. Maryville took possession on the thirty-three yard line and from there completed the aerial from Richey to James for a 13-13 tie. Marion Freeman's place kick added the winning point.
